For over a decade, we have engaged millions worldwide, with more than 100,000 students across 120 countries working to create innovative social startups. The program supports students in imagining, testing, and refining their ideas, empowering them to bring their ventures to life. As a Campus Director, Nipson K C served as the official Hult Prize ambassador for University of New Haven, leading a team of volunteers, recruiting student entrepreneurs, connecting them with mentors, and organizing events such as demo days, networking sessions, and a local pitch competition. Through these efforts, Nipson K C raised awareness about the Hult Prize and promoted social business as a solution to global challenges. The OnCampus Program served as a qualifying event for the $1 Million Hult Prize Competition, with winners advancing to the Hult Prize Nationals.
